News Anchor

WQAD-TV, Moline, Illinois has a position available for a News Anchor. We're losing our leading lady who is newly married and will soon be relocating. She will be hard to replace, but if you think you are up to the task, we want to hear from you. We are in John Deere country. Extra points if you are a Quad Cities native and know the shorthand. Either way, you must have an understanding and appreciation of the people we serve if you are going to succeed. Our viewers are our neighbors, and we are growing, not cutting back in these lean times. We thrive with a team approach, and you will need to assert yourself as a leader in our newsroom, working in concert with our station management. We pride ourselves on breaking news and leading the way with the strongest weather team in the Midwest, so you will need to be ready to jump right in. You must be able to shoot, write, and edit video. Between newscasts, you'll be expected to post stories on our website and keep the news flowing with our audience. You must be accomplished at field anchoring. You must be comfortable taking a "command anchor" role when news breaks, and be capable of anchoring extemporaneously without the safety net of a TelePrompTer. You must understand the importance of weather, not just on city streets, but country roads and farmland that is the lifeblood of the audience we serve. If you are interested in this position, send a video link or DVD of your work to: Alan Baker, Assistant News Director, WQAD-TV, 3003 Park 16th Street, Moline, IL 61265; email: alan.baker@wqad.com.

Preschool Teacher

Production Assistant (part-time)

The WQAD-TV, Moline, Illinois, production department is looking for a team member to join an already dynamic behind-the-scenes team. Do you like being in the center of the action? If you have a can-do attitude and like working early, we need you!!! Must be able to operate studio cameras and TelePrompTer, ensure all pre-newscast details are completed and ready for air, maintain a clean and organized studio, set up and maintain studio lighting, assist production and news departments during breaking coverage. Production experience helpful but not necessary. If you are interested in this position, send a resume to Bruce Apa, Production Manager, WQAD-TV, 3003 Park 16th Street, Moline, Illinois 61265-6061 or email bruce.apa@wqad.com.

Radio Station Aide

KMCN/KCLN is looking for responsible students who would like to work part-time for at the radio station. It would consist of working some weekend hours as well as some weekday evenings. Maybe 8-12 hours per week. If interested, contact Chris Streets, 563-243-1390.

Reporter/Producer

The WQAD-TV8 news department is looking for an accomplished broadcast journalist to join our dynamic and winning news team. This position is a general assignment reporting one that will typically showcase your dynamic live storytelling in the top of our late newscasts. You must have proven skills in digging for stories, writing and producing for a winning news operation, and a competitive spirit to support the best breaking news operation in town. We're a full-service local news organization; we work 24/7 servicing our community on our newscasts and digital platforms. You will be contributing video you shoot and stories you break, no matter the time of day. You must know what it takes to build a competitive, winning, and watchable story. Experience preferred, but the skill to offer "must see TV" is the key! You must demonstrate a keen sense of news judgment, it's a given that you can write and produce. A positive, "can-do" approach is required, complainers without solutions will probably be sent to our competition! If you are interested in this position, Send a resume to Alan Baker, Assistant News Director, WQAD-TV, 3003 Park 16th Street, Moline, Illinois 61265-6061 or email alan.baker@wqad.com.

Retail Management Trainee

Walgreens, the nation's premier retail drugstore, has opportunities nationwide. With 7,000 stores planned by the year 2010, we're creating opportunities for talented, ambitious individuals to be ready to contribute to future success. This position is designed to provide extensive training, both on-the-job and through company training programs, to give you the management and technical skills necessary to become a Walgreens Store Manager. Each Management Trainee works one-on-one with experienced store managers, spending time in each department learning to manage the day-to-day store operations. Management Trainees will learn management responsibilities, merchandising, advertising, inventory, bookkeeping, and human resources. Promotion is based on performance and productivity without regard to seniority. College degree & retail experience preferred. Salary - approximately low to mid $30,000. Opportunity for paid overtime, medical and dental coverage. For the fastest response, complete our Walgreens Online Application. Simply go to www.walgreens.jobs and select "Retail Management". Special Transportation Service Operator

MetroLINK is accepting applications from individuals committed to caring, outstanding customer service for the position of part-time Special Transportation Service Operator to provide curb-to-curb service for the MetroLINK's Special Transportation Services. Approximately 20 hours per week. Applicants must be at least 21 years of age; have a high school diploma or GED; be able to communicate effectively with customers and persons with various disabilities in a courteous, friendly and effective manner; and be able to communicate with MetroLINK staff, orally and in writing. Must be willing to take a drug screen, DOT Physical and have an excellent driving record. A criminal background investigation will be performed. Starting pay is $8.60 per hour and includes benefits. Interested individuals can apply at MetroLINK's administrative office located at 1515 River Drive, Moline, IL Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm.

Sports Anchor

WQAD-TV, an ABC affiliate with a long and proud tradition of covering local sports in and around the Quad Cities communities it serves, is looking for a great storyteller that loves to tell of the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat for local high school and college athletes and showcase the pride of each town in the 17 diverse counties we serve. "Glory Days" will be all the more special because of the fun, creative, thoughtful, poignant tales you bring to viewers each night. Our goal is to have the sports segments of our newscasts be "must watch" TV. This isn't about the scores or the video highlights, you will be expected to post them regularly (and more than anyone else) on our digital platforms. What will make you great -- and help us improve our ratings and revenue -- will be your saturation into the local sports world, and your unfailing enthusiasm to be the very best place for the student-athletes, their families, friends and communities to come see all about it. You must be able to shoot, write, and edit video. You'll work at the direction of news management, but you will need to be a self-starter and offer direction to each day's, each week's, and each season's, coverage. You will need to exhibit a strong work ethic and ability to perform independently daily. In short, you'll captain our sports effort at our station. If you are interested in this position, send a video link or DVD of your work to: Alan Baker, Assistant News Director, WQAD-TV, 3003 Park 16th Street, Moline, IL 61265; email alan.baker@wqad.com
