Student Agreement

Alternate Media

I, _____, verify that I have a disability which impacts my ability to access print media and agree to the following terms and conditions regarding Alternate Media use as a student of Ashford University:

- I have a disability that prevents me from using texts in print, and therefore, I request receipt of my texts in an alternate format.
- I will not use, further distribute, or copy these alternate media files for any other purpose.
- I will abide by the Copyright Law of the United States of America, as amended (17 U.S.C Sec 101 et seq.), and the applicable Student Community Standards of Ashford University.
- I understand the publisher owns all rights to the works and the alternate media files for the works, including copyright; I only have the right to use the alternate media for the purposes set forth in this request.
- I agree to purchase requested works and provide verification of purchase at least 2 weeks in advance of the start date of each course for which alternate media is requested.

Bookshare

Bookshare is a non-profit ebook library that is free to students with a qualifying print disability. Visit Bookshare for additional information and questions regarding Bookshare services.

- I am interested in Bookshare services and would like more information. I understand that I must have a documented print disability (e.g. blindness, low vision or dyslexia) to be eligible for this service.
- I am not interested in Bookshare services.

Student Consent

I verify that the aforementioned information is complete, true, and correct, and by signing this form and receiving alternate media items, I am agreeing to abide by these terms.
